Our History

In 1958, the Fort Stockton community was growing, yet was served by only one bank. With the help of local investors and friends, many Fort Stockton citizens pooled their resources and talents to form First National Bank of Fort Stockton.

Today, First National Bank has grown to include our original Fort Stockton location, as well as Brave National Bank of Iraan (Apr 2015). We're all one, but continue to serve each community's unique needs.

By embracing the latest in online and mobile banking technology, and infusing it with our commitment to personal hometown service, our goal is to make sure you know — at FNB, the most important person is you!
